Roam-Milestones:

We felt it would be useful to add that we do not feel as though these github commits represent the share of labor of each team member. We did not use github entirely correctly, and instead forked the code improperly (in the case of the Roam-temp fork), and sent each other code off of github for others to push along with their code. We feel as though all members contributed, and apologize for the inaccuracy of our github information.

- Deployment: https://roam-csci-3308.herokuapp.com/
  - We deployed our app through Heroku.
  - Our initial app was run locally through NodeJS, so all we had to do was modify the server.js code for Heroku support.
